MELODEON. WELODEON,
what it always has been, and always will be, the
PIONEER CONCERT HALL OF AMERICA.
Read the opinions of the Sunday press:—
[From the Sunday Dispatch.]
The Melodeon has an exceedingly strong company at present. Among them we may mention Kate Pennoyer, Eva Brent, Measrs. Sharpley, Biowart and Velarde, together with Miss Louise, the wonderful lady drummer, and a host of other talent, including over one hundred performers, fill its halls every night. Among the usual attractions are superdances, gymnastic exercises, ban jo performances, burlesque tragedies, faices, &c.

other talent, including over one hundred performers, all its halls every night. Among the usual attractions are superb dances, symnastic exercises, ban jo performances, burlesque tragedica, farces, &c.

[From the Sunday Meccury.]

Melodron,—Not content with a company about as large as a moderate army, the enterprising propeletor of this omnium gatherum of performers has just sent a special agent to Enrope for new stars. The theatres must look out for themselves. The Rabbi Ulman must be wary, or all those luminaries he has been planning so long to import will be captured at last by the Melodeon.

[From the Sunday Courier.]

At the Melodeon Concert Hall, those who love the ballet will find enough to satisfy them to their hearts content. Those who love good singing likewise. The lover of good eccentric acting and Ethiopian displays will also find there all they could wish. Try it and see.

[From the Sunday Alias.]

Melodron.—The same bill of unequalled attraction, which we noticed last week, with several additional novelites, is offered for the coming one here; and it will need something more than the constant attacks upon this establishment by the National Folice Gazette to prevent the general attendance bestowed upon it.

Admission 13 cents; Orchestra 25 cents. Opens at 7; commences at 8. No free list.

N. B.—Couldn't the Great Mogul, in next week's paper, give us a likeness of Stephen H. Branch, in his character of a CONVICT ON BLACKWELL'S ISLAND, and also report his speech of his visit to Brundon among the account of this would be much more interesting than taking the likenesses of the "Freity Waiter Girls." Georgie most son get up another sensation than pitching at the Melodeon, or his paper will get "played out." Go at once at the other consent rooms, or the public will previve there is a "spite" against us; and or we will have been build an extra gallery. It is now five years since, at this very season, Matilda Heron, appearing for the first time in New York, in this character, citched the dramatic diadem with a bound, and won from the entire press of city and of country the title of the greatest actress of our time. Her personation of Camille was acknowledged as the most perfect exhibition of intense passion and of the depth of enruestness of woman's love ever presented on the stage. Night after high, for thirteen weeks, the house was crowded from pit to dome, and hundreds hung with terrible interest over the trials of the true but fallen woman, beautiful even to her fall.

Matilia Heron is still the same Matilda Heron!

The piece will be presented with a powerful cast, and the most careful attention to details.
